(a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2020, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of entity management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether we are aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

Accountant's Conclusion

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

KOREAN K9 RESCUE, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2020

Note 1 – Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Korean K9 Rescue, Inc. (the “Organization”) was established on January 23, 2017 in the State of New York to facilitate and bring dogs from the dog meat trade, puppy mills, and high kill shelters from South Korea to New York City for adoption. The Organization also pulls breed specific dogs from the New York City Animal Care Centers to re-home. To accomplish this, the Organization has partnered with local and regional South Korean dog rescuers and activists and high-kill shelters to transport dogs from areas participating in dog meat trading and puppy mills to the United States to facilitate the adoption process into a caring home. The Organization has licensed one of the South Korean dog rescuers to use their name.

This summary of accounting policies of the Organization is presented to assist in understanding the Organization’s financial statements. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles which have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Accounting for Contributions and Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”). GAAP requires reporting revenue and net assets by class as permanently restricted and unrestricted.

Method of Accounting

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Net Assets

Net assets, revenues, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor or grantor imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions – Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor or grantor restrictions.

Net assets with donor restrictions – Net assets subject to donor or grantor restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity. Donor-imposed restrictions are released when a restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both.

Note 1- Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Recent Accounting Guidance Adopted

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (ASC Topic 606), which provides a five-step analysis of contracts to determine when and how revenue is to be recognized. It replaces numerous previous requirements in U.S. GAAP, including industry-specific requirements, and provides companies with a single revenue recognition model for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers. The core principle of the new guidance is that an entity should recognize revenue to reflect the transfer of goods and services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in an exchange for those goods or services. The entity should recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation. Not-for-profit entities must consider whether certain arrangements are fully or partially subject to ASC Topic 606. Judgement is required to bifurcate transactions between contributions and exchange components. On January 1, 2020, the Company adopted the requirements of ASC Topic 606 and the amendments related thereto and applied the new requirements to all its contracts using the modified retrospective method. Upon completing the implementation assessment of ASC Topic 606, the Company concluded that no adjustment was required to the opening balance of net assets at the date of initial application.

Revenue Recognition

The Organization's primary sources of revenue are from adoption fees and contributions. Adoption fees and contributions are recognized as revenues at a point in time in the period received or promised in accordance with ASC Topic 606. The timing of revenue recognition results in contributions receivable (contract assets) on the balance sheet. The beginning and ending contract asset balances at December 31, 2020 and 2019 were $30,602 and $0, respectively.

Property and Equipment

The Organization records property and equipment at cost. Maintenance and repairs that do not improve or extend the life of the asset are charged to expense. Depreciation of property and equipment is computed on the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of five years.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of program and supporting services activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. The statement of functional expenses presents the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Contributed Services

During the year ended December 31, 2020, these services were not significant and as a result were not reflected in the accompanying financial statements.

Income Taxes

The Organization is a non-profit organization as defined in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from Federal income taxes except on unrelated business income. Its tax exempt status was determined by the I.R.S. as of July 9, 2018.

The Organization is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the Internal Revenue Service. In addition, the entity is subject to income tax on its net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to their exempt purpose. Management has determined that the Organization is not subject to unrelated business income tax.

At December 31, 2020, management has concluded that there are no uncertain tax positions that would require recognition in the financial statements. If the Company was to incur an income tax liability from an uncertain tax position in the future, interest on any income tax liability would be reported as interest expense and penalties relating to any income tax liability would be reported as income tax expense.

The Organization is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. Federal and New York State returns of non-profit organizations are generally open for examination for three (3) years.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Financial Risk

The Organization maintains cash accounts at one financial institution that are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000. At December 31, 2020, cash at the financial institution did not exceed the FDIC insured amount.

Note 2 – Liquidity and Availability

Financial assets available for general expenditure, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the statement of financial position date, comprise the following:

Cash	$127,647

Note 3 – Contributions Receivable

Contributions receivable are recorded at cost and represent contributions receivable. The Organization performs evaluations of the collectability of its receivables and does not require collateral. At December 31, 2020, the Organization did not record an allowance for doubtful accounts.

Note 4 – Property and Equipment

A summary of property and equipment as at December 31, 2020, and the estimated life used in the computation of depreciation is as follows:

	Estimated Life - Years	Cost
Transportation equipment	5	$ 5,300
Less: accumulated depreciation		1,590
		$ 3,710

For the year ended December 31, 2020, depreciation expense was $1,060

Note 5 – Functional Expenses

The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributable to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include occupancy, IT support, auto maintenance, office supplies and office expense which are allocated on the basis of estimates of time and effort.

Note 6 – Grants

During the year 2020, the Organization authorized grants to Band for Animal totaling $17,600 to support the effort of rescuing dogs from brutal conditions in South Korea. Band for Animal rescues dogs from various sources and brings them into a quarantine facility. After the dogs are fully vaccinated, they are transported to the Organization in the United States for care and adoption proceedings. During the year 2020, there were additional grants to miscellaneous charities totaling $1,335 that aid in rescuing dogs.

Note 7 – Loan Payable

In 2017, a board member provided the Organization an unsecured, interest-free loan totaling $12,605 for operating purposes. The loan was repaid in 2020.

Note 8 – Other Concentration of Risk

The Organization's operations are heavily concentrated in South Korea and New York City. Future operations could be affected by changes in the political, economic or other conditions in these geographical areas.

Note 9 – Commitments and Contingencies

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared a novel strain of coronavirus ("COVID-19"), a global pandemic. COVID-19 has adversely impacted global commercial activities. The rapid development and fluidity of this outbreak precludes any prediction as to its ultimate impact, which may have a continued adverse impact on economic and market conditions and trigger a period of global economic slowdown. The Organization is actively monitoring developments closely. Given the nature of the outbreak and the on-going developments, there is a high degree of uncertainty and it is not possible at this time to predict the extent and nature of the overall future impact on the Organization's operations.

In 2020, as a direct result of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Organization incurred a substantial increase in its transportation and cargo related expenses. This increase was due to the COVID-19 related travel restrictions eliminating the affordable flight volunteer program the Organization previously relied upon to transport dogs from South Korea. As a result, the organization resorted to using the more expensive airline cargo option to transport dogs from South Korea to the United States.

In 2020, the Organization entered into an agreement to lease its' current office and facility location for a one (1) year period expiring on March 31, 2021 with annual rent at $2,050 per month. Effective April 1, 2021, the lease was renewed for an additional one (1) year period with annual rent of $25,200 or $2,100 per month expiring on March 31, 2022.

Note 10 – CARES Act Paycheck Protection Program Term Note and EIDL Grant

In 2020, the Organization applied for and received a Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP") term note from a financial institution in the amount of $38,225. This loan was to assist the Organization with its payroll related expenses, as well as rent and utilities, as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. In December 2020, the Organization received verification that this PPP note was forgiven in full. The Organization also received a separate EIDL grant from the federal government in the amount of $5,000. This grant was not required to be paid back.
